PRESIDENT'S SECRETARIAT

New Delhi, the 11th October, 1960

No. 59-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Madras Police:—

Name and rank of the officer

Shri Marangal Koramangiyil Gopalan Nair Police Constable No. 604, Malabar Special Police, Madras Battalion, Madras (deceased).

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

Constable 604, Shri Gopalan Nair was a member of a party of the Malabar Special Police party that laid an ambush near Kohima in connection with OP PARBAT. On 20th May 1960 at 19-20 hours this party which was watching the movements of the hostiles escaping from the area of operation was subjected to heavy firing with LMG and rifles by hostile Nagas. It was a dark night, with fog and drizzling further reducing the visibility. Shri Gopalan Nair who took up position when the hostiles started firing held his own fire, but was fatally hit in the side by a hostile bullet. Despite his grievous wound, Constable Gopalan Nair did not utter a sound which might have given away the position of the Police, but quietly remained at his post. Detecting the direction from which the hostile fire was coming and finding that it was fairly close, he calmly took a hand grenade and hurled it on the hostiles. Another constable No. 1091, Sankaran Nair who was also close by, followed his example and threw another hand grenade. This had the effect of stopping further firing from hostiles who evidently were hit, or frightened by the grenades and retreated. A subsequent search of the area showed some blood-stains and a bolt of a rifle which had been dropped by the hostiles while precipitately retreating. By his resolute action Constable Gopalan Nair prevented the hostiles from advancing on the police position and from escaping from the operation area.

In this successful encounter, Constable Gopalan Nair exhibited exemplary courage and devotion to duty in the performance of which he laid down his life.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to the officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

No. 60-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Uttar Pradesh Police:—

Name and rank of the officer

Shri Inam Ali, Circle Inspector, Agra, Uttar Pradesh.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

Circle Inspector Shri Inam Ali of Agra district received reliable information on 6th January 1960 about the presence of the notorious dacoit Daffedar Singh and his gang in the ravines of the river Chambal near villages Kunwarkhera and Gungoali. He at once conveyed this information to his Circle Officer. The latter collected all the available Civil Police and Provincial Armed Constabulary Force and immediately proceeded with Shri Inam Ali to the ravines where the gang was reported to be in hiding. The force was divided into four parties, three of which lay in ambush on the likely routes of escape of the gang while the fourth party under the command of the Circle Officer and Inspector Shri Inam Ali proceeded to attack the gang from village Kunwarkhera towards village Gungoali through the ravines at about 08-00 hours on the 7th January, 1960. Seeing the police party advancing the dacoits opened heavy rifle fire on them from positions of advantage. Inspector Shri Inam Ali, however, in complete disregard of his personal safety advanced close to the gang and succeeded in killing Daffedar Singh, the leader who was found to be dressed in khaki uniform and wearing the badges of rank of a Sub Inspector of the Madhya Pradesh Police. A .303 rifle and a large quantity of ammunition were found with them. The rest of the gang managed to escape through the deep ravines under cover of darkness.

In this successful encounter against a well organized and heavily armed gang Circle Inspector Shri Inam Ali exhibited great initiative, determination and devotion to duty in the face of grave danger to his own life.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to the officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

No. 61-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Uttar Pradesh Police:—

Name and rank of the officer.

Shri Khyatendra Pal Singh, Deputy Superintendent of Police (Officiating) Agra, Uttar Pradesh.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

On receipt of information at about 18-00 hours on the 21st March 1960, that the gang of the notorious dacoit Balwanta, who was wanted in several cases of dacoity, murder and kidnapping in Uttar Pradesh, was in the ravines of River Utangan near villages Behari and Chamarpura, Sri Khyatendra Pal Singh, Circle Officer, Fatehabad, District Agra, accompanied by the Station Officer of Police Station Fatehabad and the available force, including P.A.C., immediately proceeded to the ravines. The force was divided into four parties. Two of the parties lay in ambush on the likely routes of escape of the gang and the other two parties, one under the command of Sri Khyatendra Pal Singh himself, proceeded to close in from two sides and strike at the gang. At about 16-45 hours the dacoits noticed the police force advancing towards them and immediately opened fire on the party led by Sri Khyatendra Pal Singh. Undaunted by the firing and unmindful of his personal safety he continued his advance towards the dacoits. Balwanta, the leader of the gang, who had taken up a commanding position, continued to fire wildly at the police party. Sri Khyatendra Pal Singh at great personal risk came up close to the dacoits and succeeded in shooting down Balwanta. The rest of the gang managed to escape through the ravines. One DBBL 12 bore gun with a large quantity of ammunition was found with Balwanta.

In this bold and successful encounter Sri Khyatendra Pal Singh exhibited exemplary courage, leadership and devotion to duty at great personal risk.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to the officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.
